SPORTSAID

INTRODUCTION

The brand new hummel Sportsaid is a professional line of sports care products developed in cooperation with health care professionals, sports physiotherapists and leading sports medical suppliers to support athletes at all levels.

hummel Sportsaid is designed and selected with focus on the needs of athletes and health care staff in various sports. The range spans from basic needs for amateur clubs to extensive sports care products for professionals to meet any medical need.

In addition to hummel Sportsaid we collaborate with the leading global health company Essity. With this strong partnership hummel secures our clubs, teams and retailers to have access to popular product trademarks such as Strappal[®], Leukotapes[®] and Tensospray[®].

All our products have been carefully tested on the field and in the test lab. We put this above all other, so we can guarantee the highest quality for the athlete.

All our tapes and bandages are latex-free.
